

Job Description:

Focal has an opening for a part-time attorney to assist the firm's technology transactional practice. Attorneys seeking a better work-life balance or those transitioning to semi-retirement are encouraged to apply. An Of Counsel relationship may also be considered. The ideal candidate will possess at least the following qualifications:

- At least three years of experience as a practicing attorney with a law firm or as in-house counsel.
- Experience drafting and negotiating complex technology contracts, including software licensing agreements, cloud services agreements, SaaS agreements, online terms of service, privacy policies, and confidentiality agreements.
- Experience advising clients on trademark, copyright, and trade secret laws as they relate to e-commerce and online retail sales.
- Ability to work independently, organize and manage multiple projects at once, prioritize, and meet tight deadlines.
- Excellent written and oral communications skills.
- Law degree from an ABA-accredited law school; admitted to Washington State Bar Association.

We are proud that Focal maintains a collaborative work environment with legal professionals who strive to maintain a healthy work/life balance. Focal attorneys enjoy the ability to work from home when appropriate.

Focal is a minority owned business. We place a high premium on diversity. Women, people of color, and LGBTQ candidates are encouraged to apply. We are an equal opportunity employer and all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, gender, national origin, age, genetic information, creed, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability status, protected veteran status, or any other protected status as defined by federal, state or local law. We have a great team and consider ourselves a lifestyle firm in that we try not to work ourselves to death while at the same time handling sophisticated and interesting work.
